

PP Rtn. Rtr. Arun Teja Godavarthi

Secretary - Reporting & Initiatives, Rotaract South Asia MDIO
Immediate Past District Rotaract Representative, RI District 3191

Rtn. Rtr. Arun Teja Godavarthi is a dedicated Rotaractor with a highly accomplished professional journey spanning over a decade. Arun has consistently demonstrated exceptional leadership skills and a deep commitment to positively impacting.

Arun's Rotaract journey began in RY 2015 - 2016 as a Charter Member and International Service Director of the Rotaract Club of CMRIT. His passion and dedication quickly propelled him to prominent leadership roles, including Secretary and President of the club during the Golden Jubilee Year of Rotaract. Arun is a Charter member of Rotaract Bangalore East and a Rotarian from Rotary Bangalore East. These experiences allowed Arun to leave an indelible mark on the organization and inspire those around him.

Within the Rotaract District Council 3190, Arun has held various vital roles, showcasing his administrative prowess and transformative vision. From being a District Committee member to serving as District Web Services Director, District Joint Secretary, District Rotaract Secretary for Operations & Training and ultimately as District Rotaract Representative, Arun has consistently driven positive change and ensured the smooth functioning of the District.

Rtn. Rtr. Arun served as the First District Representative of RI District 3191 and was the Host DRR of Rotasia 2024 Bengaluru hosted by RI District 3191 and RI District 3192. Currently, he serves as the Secretary - Reporting & Initiatives of Rotaract South Asia MDIO.

Arun's exceptional contributions to the Rotaract movement have been recognized and celebrated with numerous awards. Arun was honored with the Outstanding District Rotaract Representative Awards by Rotaract South Asia MDIO & SEARIC MDIO. Additionally, he was recognized with the Outstanding District Secretary Award for two consecutive years, along with accolades such as Best Executive Council Member, Memorial Leadership Award, Young Achievers Award, and more. These accolades serve as a testament to his unwavering dedication and remarkable achievements.

Outside of Rotaract, Arun's professional journey has been equally impressive. He began as a Founding member of various ventures at the age of 16, displaying his entrepreneurial spirit and drive. Over time, he transitioned into the role of a Community Strategy Consultant, working with a diverse range of clients across the globe. Currently, Arun is the Developer Community Manager supporting the Ecosystem Programs of Google in India, where he continues to make a significant impact by fostering vibrant developer communities.

Rtr. Arun Teja Godavarthi's multifaceted background, exceptional leadership skills, and relentless pursuit of excellence make him an inspiring role model for aspiring leaders and professionals. His passion for Rotaract and dedication to making a positive difference have left a lasting impact on the organizations he has been a part of. We applaud his achievements and eagerly anticipate his future endeavors as he continues to set new benchmarks and contribute to the betterment of society.
